

CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE
LIBRARY

700 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

Select Bibliographies No. 10
Dec. 12, 1940

M. Alice Matthews
Librarian

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Select list of references on regional and world federation; together with some special plans for world order after the war.

Compiled by Helen L. Scanlon, under the direction of M. Alice Matthews.

Contents

Bibliographies, p. 1.
Periodicals devoted to problems of a new world order, p. 2.
Books, pamphlets and magazine articles, p. 2-17.

Bibliographies

- Carnegie endowment for international peace. Library. Anglo-American alliance, with some recent references on Anglo-American relations. [Washington, 1938] 5 numb. 1. (Its Brief reference list, no. 12, Rev. Mar. 21, 1939)
- Danube economic union (proposed) [Washington, 1936] 2 1. (Its Brief reference list no. 8. Aug. 11, 1936)
- Federalism. Select list of references on federal government, regionalism, etc., and notable examples of federations and unions of states. Washington, 1938, 11 p. (Its Select bibliographies no. 8. March 15, 1938)
- League of American nations. [Washington, 1938] 3 numb. 1. (Its Brief reference list, no. 11. Sept. 9, 1938)
- Liddell, Helen. War and peace aims. International affairs review supplement (London) June and Oct. 1940, v. 19: 11-21, 91-93.
Bibliography and review of publications.
- Pan American union. Columbus memorial library. American league of nations. (In its Bibliographic series no. 21, Feb. 1, 1939. p. 1-4)
- War documentation service. War check list, a working guide to the background and early months of the war (Sept. 1938-Jan. 31, 1940) Philadelphia, 1940. 78, 46 p. (War documentation service bulletin, March-April, 1940, no. 4, pt. 1-2)
Peace and federation proposals, pt. 2, p. 72-77.
- Washington association for union now. Research committee. Union now - a bibliography on the federal union of nations, by Jacob G. Lyons. Preliminary report of the Research committee. Washington (1819 G St.) 1940. 12 p.

Note: A dash before an item indicates the same author as that of the preceding item.

Gist of the Publishers

-2-

Periodicals

- Commission to study the organization of peace. Bulletin, no. 1-3, March 6-27, 1940. New York (8 West 40th St.) 1940.
Summarizes various unofficial suggestions from groups and individuals in other countries for the future organization of peace.
- Which way to lasting peace? broadcasts, no. 1-15. New York, 1940. 15 nos. Radio addresses on various phases of the problem of world reorganization.
- Federal union world, formerly Union now bulletin... v. 1 [no. 1- March, 1939- Washington, D.C., Union press, 1939-Organ of Federal union, inc., 10 East 40th St., New York.
- The New commonwealth quarterly; a review devoted to research into problems of a new world order. v. 1- April/June 1935- London, New commonwealth institute of world affairs, 1935-
- Pan Europa; hrsg. von R.N. Coudenhove-Kalergi. April 1924-Mar. 1938, v. 1-14. Wien, Pan Europa verlag, 1924-1938.
Official organ of the Pan European movement. Published also in French.
Continued by Europäische briefe, Nov. 1938-June, 1940. (In German and French)
- Union, monthly forum of the New commonwealth institute of world affairs. v. 1- Jan. 1940- [London, 1940-
The first two issues, Jan.-Feb. 1940, were entitled: Union, monthly digest.
- Washington association for union now. Monthly bulletin, v. 1, no. 1- Feb. 1, 1940- Washington, D.C. (1243 - 24th St.) 1940- mimeog.
- The world community, v. 1, no. 1- [1940?- Lyndhurst, N.J. (307 Tontine Ave.)
[1940?-
- ✓ World federation - now, v. 1, no. 1- Apr. 1939- Chicago, Campaign for world government (166 W. Jackson Blvd.) 1939-
- Zeitschrift für geopolitik, verbunden mit der Zeitschrift weltpolitik und weltwirtschaft. Hrsg. von Dr. Karl Haushofer, v. 1, no. 1- 1924- Heidelberg, 1924-
Contains authoritative articles on the Nazi philosophy and plans for a new order in Europe.

Books, Pamphlets and Magazine Articles

- Adams, Mildred. Amid war, we plan for peace on earth; proposed plans for European unity. Independent woman (New York) Dec. 1939, v. 18: 378-380.
- After the next armistice - what? [a radio discussion by ] Frank Knox, Walter Laves, William Spencer. University of Chicago round table, Nov. 12, 1939, no. 87. 29 p.
- ✓ Alexander John G. After the war, peace! [we need a federation of the world] Congressional record, Nov. 3, 1939, v. 85, pt. 2, appendix: 769-772.

MAR 12 1941

467105

Gist.

0169405

2C 215m

✓ Alexander, John G. A new world order. Congressional record (daily) Dec. 12, 1940, v. 86: 21467-21468.

Alfaro, Ricardo J., pres. Panama. An American league of nations. World affairs (Washington) Sept. 1938, v. 101: 158-165.

A history of the project, and extracts from the speech of President Wilson at the Second Pan American scientific congress in Washington in 1916.

— Toward an American association of nations. Quarterly journal of inter-American relations (Cambridge, Mass.) Jan. 1939, v. 1: 25-36.

Alliance of the democracies of the world. Debate from the Southern association tournament (Louisiana state university affirmative vs. University of Florida negative) (In Intercollegiate debates. New York, Noble and Noble, 1939, v. 20: 125-162)

An alliance with Great Britain. University of Redlands affirmative vs. Pasadena college negative. (In Intercollegiate debates. New York, Noble and Noble, 1938, v. 19: 1-48)

Bibliography: p. 45-48.

Alvarez, Alejandro. L'organisation internationale, précédents de la Société des nations et de l'Union fédérale européenne. Divers travaux de 1915 à 1924 et rapports présentés à l'Union juridique internationale de 1926 à 1930. Paris, Les Editions int., 1931. 357 p.

American academy of political and social science, Philadelphia. When war ends, edited by Ernest M. Patterson. Philadelphia, 1940. 195 p. (Its Annals. v. 210, July, 1940)

Contents. - Some essentials of lasting peace. - Plans and proposals for peace. - Peace in Europe. - Peace in the Far East. - Peace in the Americas.

An American league of nations. The Pennsylvania state college vs. The University of Puerto Rico. (In University debaters' annual, 1937-1938. New York, Wilson, 1938, p. 149-195)

Bibliography: p. 184-195.

America's town meeting of the air. What kind of peace can Europe make? [Maurice Hindus, Linda Littlejohn, Friedrich E. Auhagen, John Gunther] Town meeting (New York) Dec. 4, 1939, v. 5, no. 8.

— What kind of world order do we want? [H.G. Wells, Ray Lyman Wilbur, Dr. Hu Shih, John T. Flynn] Town meeting (New York) Dec. 2, 1940, v. 6, no. 3.

— Would a union of democracies save world peace? [discussion of "Union now", by Clarence K. Streit, Dorothy Detzer, Wickham Steed, George E. Sokolsky] Town meeting (New York) Mar. 13, 1939, v. 4, no. 18.

Angell, Sir Norman. Design for peace... 'Union now', a true federation of the democracies, the eventual solution. Living age (New York) Nov. 1939, v. 357: 252-254.

Anglo-American alliance. Iowa state college vs. Oxford-Cambridge debate team. (In University debaters' annual, 1938-1939. New York, Wilson, 1939, p. 65-109)

Bibliography: p. 101-109.

Atholl, Katharine Marjory (Ramsay) duchess of. In search of assured peace. Fortnightly (London) Dec. 1939, v. 146, n.s.: 628-637; Living age (New York) Feb. 1940, v. 357: 524-530.

Outlines various plans for reorganization of the world.

Auhagen, Friedrich E. Design for peace: a united states of central Europe. Today's challenge (New York) Nov. 1939, p. 26-31.

Published by American fellowship forum, 11 West 42d St. New York City.

Ayles, Walter H. An economic league of nations; the report of the Bruce committee. Peace (London) Nov. 1939, v. 2: 49-50.

The Bruce committee was a Special committee of the League of nations on international cooperation in economic and social affairs.

✓ Ayusawa, Iwao F. The new world order; a Japanese view. Contemporary Japan (Tokyo) July, 1940, v. 9: 791-810.

Bailey, Gerald. League and federation. [London, 1940] 10 p. [National peace council. Pamphlets. 1940, no. 1]

A comparison of the potentialities of the two schemes for the future order.

Barton, Robert. Planning for peace [in Europe] Union (London) Sept. 1940, v. 1: 274-279.

Benson, George C.S. Unexplored problems of federalism, by G.C.S. Benson and Mabel G. Benson. New commonwealth quarterly (London) Dec. 1939, v. 5: 216-229.

Beveridge, Sir William. Peace by federation. London, Federal union, 1940. 35 p. (Federal tracts no. 1)

Bingham, Alfred M. The United States of Europe. New York, Duell, Sloan and Pearce [c1940] 336 p.

"Selected bibliography": p. 325-326.

Contents. - Part 1: History of an idea. Part 2; The political phase. Part 3 The economic phase.

Boeckel, Mrs. Florence (Brewer) Peace now... Various plans proposed. Washington, National council for prevention of war [1940] 11 p.

The Bruce plan of the League of nations. Plan of the National peace council (London). Streit's Union now. Federation of European states. British League of nations union plan. World federation of nations. Concrete proposals for a negotiated peace, in the United States News. America's part.

Brailsford, Henry N. Can Europe federate? New republic (New York) Mar. 18, 1940, v. 102: 366-367.

End of small nations; great empires or a federated Europe? American mercury (New York) July, 1940, v. 50: 276-284.

Brewer, William C. Permanent peace. Philadelphia, Dorrance, 1940. 264 p.

"A plan to insure eternal world peace... through effective international law based upon equality and wisdom, under a permanent alliance of all nations."

✓ Brunauer, Mrs. Esther (Caukin) Building the new world order, by E.C. Brunauer...with the aid of the members of the Committee on international relations of the American association of university women. Special student ed. New York, League of nations assoc. inc., 1939. 40 p.

Three main lines of discussion on a future peace (1) Union of democracies.
(2) Building on League foundations. (3) Peace system in the western hemisphere.

Butler, Nicholas Murray. Some problems of world federation. (In his The family of nations. New York, Scribner, 1938. p. 353-367)

An address at the International club, Geneva, June 14, 1937.

— Toward a federal world; an address delivered at the Parrish art museum, Southampton, Long Island, September 3, 1939. [17] p.

Published also in Vital speeches of the day (New York) Sept. 15, 1939, v. 5: 714-718.

Urges a world-wide application of the principles of the American constitution.

Caloyanni, Megalos A. The Balkan union, the Balkan conferences, and the Balkan pact. (In Grotius society. Problems of peace and war. London, 1933-1934. v. 18: 97-108; v. 19: 89-101)

Cassel, Gustav. Reflections on postwar reconstruction. Annals of the American academy of political and social science (Philadelphia) July, 1940, v. 210: 24-27.

Cecil, Edgar A.R.G. Cecil, viscount. LNU principles are right; some such organization as the League is absolutely necessary. Headway (London) Dec. 1939, v. 2, no. 3.

Channing-Pearce, Melville, ed. Federal union, a symposium. London, Cape [1940] 336p. Contents.— Pt. 1. The meaning and history of federalism. Pt. 2. Federalism in theory. Pt. 3. Federation in practice. Pt. 4. Federalism today and tomorrow.

Clark, Grenville. A memorandum with regard to a new effort to organize peace and containing a proposal for a "Federation of free peoples" in the form of a draft (with explanatory notes) of a constitution for the proposed federation... New York, 1939. 38 p.

Cole, George D.H. War aims. London, New statesman and Nation, 1939. 58 p. (New statesman pamphlets) European federation the ultimate aim.

✓ Commission to study the organization of peace. Preliminary report, November, 1940. New York, 1940. 14 p.

The Commission is located at 8 West 40th St., New York, under the chairmanship Of James T. Shotwell. The report sets forth elementary principles essential to a lasting peace, and recommends world federation.

— A study of the organization of peace [study course] Based upon the Preliminary report of the Commission... New York, 1940. 32 p.

— Study outline on the organization of peace. New York, 1940. 31 p. (Its Study kit)

- Conference on world economic cooperation, Washington, D.C., 1938. ...Report of the proceedings of the conference. New York, National peace conference [1938] 51 p.
- Congress of American professions. Union of free peoples. Washington, D.C., American council on public affairs. [1940?]
- Doudenhove-Kalergi, Richard N. Can Europe unite? Christian Science Monitor magazine (Boston) Dec. 2, 1939, p. 14, 23.
A reply to this article by S.G. Rendel entitled "International federation" was published in the Christian Science Monitor magazine, April 13, 1940, p. 15.
- The defense of western civilization [address delivered at International house, New York, Nov. 3, 1940] 13 numb. 1. mimeog.
A plan for an Atlantic union.
- Europe must unite... Tr. by Sir Andrew McFadyean... Glarus, Switzerland, Paneuropa eds. [1939] 160 p.
A historical review of the Pan Europa movement, concluded by a discussion of the way it may be achieved.
- Pan-Europe... with an introduction by Nicholas Murray Butler. New York, Knopf, 1926. 215 p.
- Crotch, William W. What shall we make of Europe? Contemporary review (London) Feb. 1940, v. 157: 160-168.
Recommends the use of the federal system in the political sphere and of the customs union in the economic sphere.
- Curry, W. B. The case for federal union. Harmondsworth, Middlesex, Penguin books, ltd. [1939] 218 p.
Federal union is the name, not merely of a proposal, but also of a society that has been founded to advocate this proposal.
- ✓ Curtis, Lionel. World order (Civitas Dei). New York and Toronto, Oxford univ. press, 1939. lxxviii, 985 p.
Considers a working system of human society and comes to the conclusion that such a system must mean the organization of all human society in one commonwealth.
Ralph W. Page, in his "Designs for a world order," calls this great work the foundation of all thought upon the design of a new order.
- Dalton, Hugh. Hitler's war, before and after. Harmondsworth, Middlesex, England, Penguin books ltd. [1940] 191 p.
Associations of states: p. 156-167.
- Davies, David Davies, baron. A federated Europe. London, V. Gollancz ltd., 1940. 141 p.
- De Haas, Jacob A. After the war: what? Christian Science Monitor magazine, Oct. 28, 1939, p. 3-4, 12.
- Dexter, Mrs. Elizabeth (Anthony) A proposed method for world peace [Plans of the New commonwealth] Chronicle of world affairs (New York) Nov. 1938, v. 10, no. 11.
Reorganization of the League to provide for an international police force.

- Drucker, Peter F. Germany's plans for the future. Harpers magazine (New York) Nov. 1940, v. 181: 597-604.
- Duffus, Robert L. Blueprint for a post-war world; Julian Huxley tries the scientific approach to the problem of a federated Europe. New York Times magazine, Jan. 28, 1940, p. 10, 18.
- Dukes, John F. America's role in world affairs, an address... delivered... October 28, 1939. New York, Federal council of the churches of Christ in America. Dept. of international justice and goodwill. [1939] 20 p.
America to lead the transition to a new order of less independent, semi-sovereign states bound together by a league or federal union. p. 8-20.
Also in Commission to study the organization of peace. Study kit.
- Eagleton, Clyde. The League of nations and federal union. New commonwealth quarterly (London) Sept. 1939, v. 5: 119-130.
- Peace means more than political adjustment. Annals of the American academy of political and social science (Philadelphia) July, 1940, v. 210: 35-42.
- Eaton, Joseph W. Arab-Jewish federated state; union now proposed for Palestine, Trans-Jordania and Lebanon. Living age (New York) July, 1940, v. 358: 438-443.
- Eça, Raul d'. The pros and cons in regard to an Inter-American league of nations. World affairs (Washington) Sept. 1938, v. 101: 166-170.
- Einaudi, Luigi. The nature of a world peace. Annals of the American academy of political and social science (Philadelphia) July, 1940, v. 210: 66-67.
(a) Unify Europe and the European dependencies on the pattern of the Napoleonic empire or, better, the Roman empire: one ruler, one law, one religion. (b) Unify Europe and dependencies on a federal plan on the pattern of the United States of America.
- Elliston, Herbert B. Back to the Hague plan in world cooperation. Central committee for economic and social problems [to make the League of nations work] Christian Science Monitor, Feb. 13, 1940, p. 1.
- Emmet, Christopher T., jr. A federated Europe. New world (New York) Feb. 1940, v. 12, no. 2: 10.
- Engel, Salo. League reform, an analysis of official proposals and discussions, 1936-1939. Geneva, 1940. 282 p. (Geneva studies, v. 11, nos. 3/4)
- European federal union; replies of twenty-six governments of Europe to M. Briand's Memorandum of May 17, 1930. New York, Carnegie endowment for international peace, Division of intercourse and education [1930] 123 p. (International conciliation. December, 1930, no. 265)
Includes in addition to the replies, an analysis of them by the French government.
- Felix, archduke of Hapsburg. First steps toward peace in Europe... Philadelphia, University of Pennsylvania press, 1940. 15 p. (Howard Crawley memorial lectures. April 25, 1940)
Urges the formation of a series of confederations in the Danubian states, the Balkans, Poland, and the Scandinavian states.

- Fisher, Herbert A.L. Beyond the war. Fortnightly (London) Feb. and March, 1940, v. 147: 117-126; 256-265.
Reviews and evaluates the various plans for world reorganization.
- Flugel, J. C. The psychological appeal of federalism. New commonwealth quarterly (London) Oct. 1940, v. 6: 102-114.
- Foreign policy association, New York. Club service bureau. The pros and cons of a federation of nations. New York [1939?] 10 p.
- France. Ministère des affaires étrangères. Memorandum on the organization of a régime of European federal union, addressed to twenty-six governments of Europe, by M. Briand, foreign minister of France, May 17, 1930. New York, Carnegie endowment for international peace, Division of intercourse and education [1930] 33 p. (International conciliation. Special bulletin... June, 1930)
- The future international organization. League - federation - or? Peace (London) April, 1940, n.s. v. 2, no. 11.
- Géraud, André. La France, la Grande-Bretagne et la paix future. Politique étrangère (Paris) Feb. 1940, v. 5: 13-23.
Recommends European federation.
- The German "neuordnung" in Europe. I. The political aspect by C. Smogorzewski. II. The economic aspect by F. Zweig. Free Europe (London) Sept. 20, 1940, v. 2:188-191.
- German "neuordnung" in Europe; the origin of the "lebensraum" theory. Free Europe (London) Nov. 15, 1940, v. 3; 20.
- Gooch, George P. Germany in the Europe of tomorrow. Free Europe (London) Nov. 15, 1940, v. 3; 9-10.
The rebuilding of Europe will be impossible without the aid of Germany.
- Greaves, Harold R.G. Federal union in practice. London, G. Allen, 1940. 135 p.
- Greene, Roger S. Asia and Africa and the union of the free. New commonwealth quarterly (London) Dec. 1939, v. 5: 237-243.
- Greenwood, Arthur. Why we fight; labour's case. London, G. Routledge & sons ltd. [1940] 221 p.
"After the war, what?" p. 204-[222] Suggests world federation.
- Griessemer, Tom. Hitler, Stalin, Streit: world domination or world federation. New York, Interdemocracy federal unionists, 1940. 16 p.
- Harley, John E. Post-war international organization. (In American society of international law. Proceedings, 1940. Washington, 1940. p. 104-115)
- Hartley, Livingston. Four roads to federation... American association of university women. Journal (Washington) April, 1940, v. 33: 137-140.
- ____ Roads to federation. New world (New York) Feb. 1940, v. 12, no. 2: 11-12.

- Hayek, Friedrich A. von. Economic conditions of inter-state federalism. New commonwealth quarterly (London) Sept. 1939, v. 5: 131-156.
- Herriot, Edouard. The united states of Europe... translated by Reginald J. Dingle. New York, The Viking press, 1930. 330 p.
- Hertz, Frederick. Danubian union. Contemporary review (London) March, 1940, v. 157: 284-290.
- Hill, Helen D. Beyond German victory, by Helen Hill and Herbert Agar. New York, Reynal & Hitchcock [c1940] 117 p.
Nazi design for living: p. 9-42.
- Hitler, Adolf. Mein kampf. The first complete and unexpurgated edition published in the English language. New York, Stackpole sons [1939] 669 p.
Hitler's own plan for a Nazi-dominated world.
- Hostie, Jean F. A federal outlook. [Geneva] Peace and disarmament committee of the women's international organisations [1940] 12 p. mimeog.
- International law and equity; a supreme court as the keystone of any federation or union. Geneva, Peace and disarmament commission of the women's international organisations. [1939] 2 parts [8 l.]
Issued also in the Bulletin of the Commission to study the organization of peace, no. 3, March 27, 1940.
- Housden, E. J. After the war? force behind law. [Dartford, Kent, H.G. Ellis] 1939. [10] p.
Urges a strong international army governed by a new league of nations.
- Housman, Laurence. Force cannot secure world peace... the weakness of federal union and the alternative. Peace news (London) March 15, 1940, p. 1 and 8.
- Humphreys, John H. Problems of federal union. I. Elections; II. Government. London, Proportional representation society (82 Victoria St. S.W. 1) 1940.
- International order and the conditions of its reconstruction. League of nations. Monthly summary, Nov.-Dec. 1939, v. 19: 402-407, 475-486.
- Is the 'Union now' plan practical? [Debate between Clarence K. Streit and George H. Kless Jr. Rotarian (Chicago) August, 1939, v. 55, no. 2: 14-15; 58-60.
- Is union possible? Living age (New York) Oct. 1940, v. 359: 102-104.
Discusses the possibility of a formal union of the United States and the British Empire.
- Jameson, Storm. The new Europe. Fortnightly (London) Jan. 1940, v. 147: 68-86.
Abridged in "Living age" March, 1940, under title of "The collapse of sovereignty," v. 358: 7-12. Federal union the ultimate goal.
- Jászi, Oszkar. Federalism for peace. Christian Science Monitor magazine, Feb. 17, 1940, p. 2.

- Jennings, William I. A federation for western Europe. New York, Macmillan, 1940.
208 p.
Review by A.B. Keith in New commonwealth quarterly, July, 1940.
- Joad, Cyril E.M. Federation - how? Can pacifists support federal union? Peace news
(London) Feb. 23, 1940, v. 1, 3.
- Johnsen, Julia E., comp. Pan American alliance. (In her United States foreign policy.
New York, Wilson, 1938. p. 127-307)
Printed in The Reference shelf, v. 12, no. 6.
- Kaiser, Hans. "Die Vereinigten staaten von Europa" in der englischen kriegszielpropaganda. Monatshefte für auswärtige politik (Berlin) Sept. 1940, v. 7: 671-685.
- Kamikawa, Hikomatsu. Mikado doctrine. Living age (New York) Oct. 1939, v. 357: 176-178.
The Japanese 'Monroe doctrine' or the East Asiatic 'Monroe doctrine.'
- Kant, Immanuel. Perpetual peace, a philosophical essay, by Immanuel Kant, 1795; tr...
by M. Campbell Smith. London, Allen & Unwin ltd.; New York, Macmillan [1917]
203 p.
Advocates a federation of free states.
- Keith, Arthur B. The practicability of working a federation. New commonwealth quarterly (London) July, 1940, v. 6: 3-24.
A constructive criticism of Jennings' "Federation for western Europe."
- Knauth, Percival. Nazi plan ready for new Europe; Germany as the master would weld other states in a union. New York Times, June 23, 1940, IV: 5.
- Kohn, Hans. The world must federate. Asia (New York) Feb. 1940, v. 40: 63-66.
Discussed in Asia, March, 1940, v. 40: 126-128.
- Lamont, Thomas W. Economic peace: an essential to the peace of nations. United States News (Washington) Dec. 4, 1939, p. 8.
An economic united states of Europe.
- Landone, Brown. Which road to permanent peace. [Orlando, Fla., Landone foundation, c1940] 48 p.
A plan for "a super state which shall have power to act only as a world police to enforce permanent peace on earth."
- Lawrence, David. Peace now! Why not skip the war and go directly to the main issues which are economic? - a formula is offered as a basis for an armistice. United States News (Washington) Oct. 23, 1939, v. 14.
- League of nations. Special committee on international co-operation in economic and social affairs. The development of international cooperation in economic and social affairs: report of the Special committee. [Geneva, 1939] 22 p. (League of nations. Publications, General.1939.3.)
Printed also in Monthly summary of the League of nations, Dec. 1939.
The so-called Bruce report, recommending organization by the League of an independent central committee for economic and social questions, to facilitate economic cooperation.

League of nations association, inc. Educational committee. Essential facts underlying world organization. New York, 1940. 47 p.

A revision and expansion of "Essential facts in regard to the League of nations, the world court and the International labor organization."

League reorganization: p. 19-21. The future of world organization: p. 33-36.

League of nations union, London. World settlement after the war (statement of policy adopted... 24th October, 1940) Headway in wartime (London) Nov. 1940, no. 14: 1-4, 16.

World settlement after the war (statements adopted on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, 1939) (In its Annual report for 1939. London, 1940. p. 29-31)

An amended and strengthened League of nations to be the basis of the new order.

Libby, Frederick J. Why no preparedness for peace? Peace action (Washington) Nov. 1940, v. 7, no. 3, p. 1-2.

Should English-speaking nations form a federal union?

Lothian suggests world federation. New envoy to United States envisages union with each member state preserving autonomy. New York Times, April 27, 1939, p. 8.

Mackay, Ronald W.G. Federal Europe, the case for European federation... London, Michael Joseph, 1940. 322 p.

Maddox, William P. European plans for world order. Philadelphia, 1940. 44 p. ([American academy of political and social science] James-Patten-Rowe pamphlet series no. 8)

Contents. - Official peace aim declarations. Minority party peace proposal. Reorganizing the League of nations. Proposals for an international police force. Federal union of the democracies. Federal union of European states. Regional federations within Europe.

Mann, Thomas. Two visions of peace; European confederation or supreme domination by a gigantic absolute state. Nation (New York) Feb. 10, 1940, v. 150: 174-177.

Marriott, Sir John A.R. Nationalism and federalism. Quarterly review (London) April, 1940, v. 274: 325-343.

The author bases his article on views of various authors as expressed in the seven books which he reviews.

Meston, James S.M., baron. After the war. Contemporary review (London) April, 1940, v. 157: 385-392.

Discusses briefly several of the plans for a post-war settlement.

Morley, Felix. The formula of federation [with comments by H.D. Gideonse] Asia (New York) June, 1940, v. 40: 291-295; Congressional record (daily) May 23, 1940, v. 86: 10290-10292.

Munroe, David H. Hang together, the Union now primer. New York, Union press, 1940. 98 p.

A brief summary of the Streit plan for an inter-democracy federal union.

Nash, Vernon. The case for federal union. Christian century (Chicago) Apr. 17, 1940, v. 57: 506-507.

Nash, Vernon. It must be done again, the case for a world federal union. New York, Federal union, inc., 1940. 45 p.

National league of women voters. Organization for peace, study material to be used with the pamphlet "European plans for world order", by William P. Maddox. Washington, The League, 1940. [7] 1.

National peace conference. Report of the committee of experts to the Conference on world economic cooperation, Washington, D.C., March 23-26. New York, Campaign for world economic cooperation of the National peace conference, 1938. 31 p.

— Commission on the world community. Report of the Commission on the world community to the National peace conference. New York, 1940. 18 p. mimeog.
Proposals for world organization: p. 10-16.

National peace council. Call for a declaration of the peace they seek. Peace news (London) Oct. 27, 1939, no. 176: 1.

Proposals for international economic cooperation, self-government for dependent territories, reduction of armament, a new international order, and rights of all peoples.

— Peace aims: a summary of unofficial British opinion expressed since the War. Prepared by Robert Donington. London, 1940. 2 pts. in 1 v. mimeog.
The basic principles of a new world order: p. 56-67.

National policy committee, Washington, D.C. Memorandum of the Special committee on steps toward a durable peace. Washington, 1940. 28 p. (Its Special committee memoranda, no. 9)

Discussion of the various proposals for peace after the war.

The new world order. [By] H.G. Wells, S. de Madariaga, J. Middleton Murry, C.E.M. Joad. London, 1940. [32] p. [National peace council. Pamphlets. 1940, no. 2]
Speeches on the theme of "The new world order - its basic principles."

Newfang, Oscar. World federation. Fédération universelle... traduit par Pierre Gault. New York, Barnes & Noble, inc. [c1939] 117, 121 p.

Nicolson, Hon. Harold G. Can regional federation save Europe? Free Europe (London) Jan. 12, 1940, v. 1: 82.

Opinions britanniques sur la guerre et la paix... Paris, Gallimard, 1940. 32 p.
(Nouveaux cahiers, no. 54)
British plans for the world of tomorrow.

✓ Page, Ralph W. Designs for a world order. Annals of the American academy of political and social sciences (Philadelphia) July, 1940, v. 210: 50-56.

Paish, Sir George. Is nationalism opposed to internationalism? Annals of the American academy of political and social sciences (Philadelphia) July, 1934, v. 174: 15-21.
Advocates world federation.

Pan American union. Eighth international conference of American states, Lima, Peru, Dec. 9, 1938. Special handbook for the use of delegates. Washington, 1938. 168 p.

Topic 3: Creation of a league or association of American nations, p. 20-28.

Papanastassiou, Alexandre. Vers l'union balkanique; les conférences balkaniques. Paris, Publications de la Conciliation internationale [1934] 284 p. ([Conciliation internationale] Bulletin no. 1-2-3 - 1934)

At head of title: Centre européen de la Dotation Carnegie. Division des relations internationales et de l'éducation... A.P. Papanastassiou.

Patch, Buel W. Federal union and world peace. Editorial research reports (Washington) Nov. 16, 1939, v. 2 (1939) no. 19.

Reviews outstanding proposals for federations of nations.

Peace terms for Germany [what the German democrats propose in the event of Hitler's defeat] New republic (New York) April 1, 1940, v. 102: 430-433.

Plan for an unarmed world federation, democratic, non-military and all-inclusive. American scheme proposed by the American campaign for world government. Peace news (London) May 19, 1939, p. 3.

Planning for an enduring peace. (In Institute of world affairs. Proceedings of the 17th session, Riverside, Cal., 1939. Los Angeles, 1940. p. 205-233)

Pius XII, pope. Address to the Cardinals resident in Rome, Dec. 24, 1939. International conciliation (New York) Feb. 1940, no. 357: 55-60.

Outlines five points considered essential for the setting-up of a new world order.

A Polish-Czechoslovak declaration [on a closer political and economic association which would become the basis of a new order in Central Europe] Free Europe (London) Nov. 15, 1940, v. 3, no. 27, p. 3.

Quigley, Harold S. Free China. New York, Carnegie endowment for international peace, Division of intercourse and education [1940] 131-180 p. (International conciliation... April, 1940, no. 359)

Japanese plans for a new order in East Asia: p. 164-170.

Ransome, Patrick. Federal government. Fortnightly (London) Oct. 1939, v. 146: 416-422.

Rappard, William E. Du fédéralisme international. L'Esprit international (Paris) Jan. 1940, v. 14: 3-22.

— The quest for peace since the world war. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard univ. press, 1940. xx, 516 p.

Provides background information for the study of the new world order.

Rauschnig, Hermann. The voice of destruction. By arrangement with Alliance book corporation. New York, G.P. Putnam's sons [c1940] 295 p.

"A new social order, a new economy," ch. 12.

- Rendel, S. G. International federation; Christian Science Monitor magazine, Apr. 13, 1940, p. 15.
Reply to article by R.N. Coudenhove-Kalergi in the Christian Science Monitor magazine, Dec. 2, 1939.
- Ripka, Hubert. The possibilities of central European federation. Central European observer (London) Nov. 1, 1940, v. 17: 176-177.
- Roosegarde Bisschop, Willem. A commonwealth of European states. London, P.S. King & son, ltd., 1939. 31 p.
At head of title: The Grotius society.
"Read before the Grotius society, February 8, 1939," and published in its Transactions, 1939, v. 25: 1-31.
- Rose, Adam. La reconstruction économique de l'Europe centrale et orientale. Politique étrangère (Paris) Feb. 1940, v. 5: 35-46.
- Ross, Carl A. Union now and peace now, for a new Northwest ordinance. Albion, Mich. 1939. 14 p.
Bibliography on the Union now plan on cover.
- Ruyssen, Théodore. De quelques difficultés du fédéralisme international. L'Esprit international (Paris) Avril, 1940, v. 14: 226-235.
- Samson, Gerald. New order in east Asia. Fortnightly (London) Oct. 1940, v. 154 (n.s. 148): 390-397.
- Scelle, Georges. "Union" versus "League", un procès de tendances. New commonwealth quarterly (London) Dec. 1939, v. 5: 204-215.
— La base de la paix future [federalism] Paix par le droit (Paris) Jan. 1940, v. 50: 4-8.
- Schwimmer, Rosika. Union now, for peace or war? The danger in the plan of Clarence Streit; an analysis. New York, The author, 1939. 19 p.
- Shall we have union now? Debate... [Clarence K. Streit and Quincy Howe] Forum (New York) July, 1939, v. 102: 28-32.
- The shape of Europe after the war. Free Europe (London) March 22, 1940, v. 1: 182-186.
Contents. - League or federation? by H. Wickham Steed. - Federation and free Europe, by Arthur Seldon. - League of nations versus federal union, by Commander W. Ross, R.N.
- Sherwood, Robert E. Toward an English-speaking union. Readers digest (Pleasantville, N.Y.) Dec. 1940, v. 37, no. 224: 92-95.
Condensed from Life.
- Shibley, George H. The coming united states of Europe and the world state, to end the mad race in armament building, attain justice, world peace and prosperity unprecedented. Denver, Colorado, The Author [1939] 64 p.

Six plans for international organization, by ten Oberlin college students. [Oberlin, O.?] Privately printed [1938] cover-title, 38 p.

Contents. - I. A treaty of alliance between the United States, Great Britain, and the British dominions, by William Griffith Smith. - II. A treaty entering the United States into the existing League of nations, by James Chowning Davies. - III. A covenant for a new League of nations, by Milton Elisha Bassett, Jr., and Arthur Roland Elliott, Jr. - IV. A covenant for an all-American League of nations, by Oscar Edward Anderson, James Willis Deer, and Edward Van Cleve Nicol. - V. A covenant for a league of democracies, by James Chowning Davies, Russell Fessenden, Frances Ann Harvey, and William Griffith Smith. - VI. A constitution for an international united front peace movement, by David William Barry.

Smith, Robert A. Our future in Asia. New York, Viking press, 1940. 306 p.

"The new order in east Asia": p. 257-277.

Stern-Rubarth, Edgar. Exit Prussia: a plan for Europe. London, Duckworth, 1940. 220 p.

Sternberg, Fritz. Toward world federation. The defeat of Nazism and the political organization of a "United States of Europe" will not suffice without a planned economic structure. Asia (New York) April, 1940, v. 40: 269-271.

Strasser, Otto. Germany tomorrow. Tr. from the German by Eden & Cedar Paul. London, Cape [1940] 254 p.

Partial contents: Pt 2. Liquidation of the war; peace proposals of tomorrow's Germany. Pt. 3. The new order.

Streit, Clarence K. The Atlantic union plan and the Americas. Annals of the American academy of political and social science (Philadelphia) July, 1939, v. 204: 93-101.

— The essence of Union now. New York, Union press, [1940] 85 p. (Commission to study the organization of peace. Study kit) — For mutual advantage. Atlantic monthly (Boston) Nov. 1940, v. 166: 531-539.

Discusses questions regarding plan for a federation of democracies.

— For union now. Washington, The Union press [1939] 40 p.

"The first chapter of the book, Union now, was written by the author as a pamphlet giving the essence of the volume. It is now published here separately as a pamphlet."

— The need for Union now. New York, Union press [1940] 90 p.

— Union now; the proposal for inter-democracy federal union (shorter version) New York, London, Harper & brothers [c1940] 256 p.

"This book was first made public in essence in three Cooper foundation lectures at Swarthmore college."

— Union now or never: some recent facts about the much discussed plan for world federation. Living age (New York) Dec. 1939, v. 357: 318-323.

— Union ou chaos? Paris, Librairie de Medicis, 1939. 392 p.

- Stresemann, Joachim. Economic reorganization of Europe in the event of a German victory. International conciliation (New York) Dec. 1940, no. 365: 411-419.
- Sweetser, Arthur. Post-war world. Talks (New York) Oct. 1940, v. 5, no. 4: 41-45.
- Temple, William, abp. of York. Principles of reconstruction. Fortnightly (London) May, 1940, v. 147: 453-461.
Suggests a number of small federations of European nations as a step toward eventual world federation and recommends a revitalized League of nations, with power to enforce its regulations.
- Terry, J. William. A sovereign League. New world (New York) March, 1940, v. 12, no. 3: 9, 12.
How to make the League of nations powerful.
- Thomas, Norman M. America's contribution to an enduring peace. Annals of the American academy of political and social science (Philadelphia) July, 1940, v. 210: 43-49.
Criticizes the Streit plan for "Union now," and suggests an American program.
- Thompson, Dorothy. (Mrs. Sinclair Lewis) World Germanica. Readers digest (Pleasantville, N.Y.) July, 1940, v. 37: 115-118.
German plans for the new order.
- Toward European federation. New republic (New York) Jan. 8, 1940, v. 102: 38-40.
- Toward world federation, comment by Bertrand Russell, James T. Shotwell, Quincy Wright Henry Pratt Fairchild [on "The world must federate," by Hans Kohn, in Asia, Feb. 1940] Asia (New York) March, 1940, v. 40: 126-128.
- Union now? A debate on "Union now". New commonwealth quarterly (London) Sept. 1939, v. 5: 157-169.
- Union now? [Debate between Clarence K. Streit and Bennett Champ Clark] Rotarian (Chicago) Oct. 1940, v. 57, no. 4: 13-15, 57.
- "Union now." I. The only way. II. The membership of union. III. The suicide of sovereignty. Round table (London) June, 1939, p. 476-488.
- Union: oceanic or continental. Round table (London) Sept. 1939, v. 29: 733-744.
- Vambéry, Rustem. United States of the Danube. Nation (New York) Dec. 23, 1939, v. 149: 705-707.
- Villari, Luigi. Foundations of a durable peace. Annals of the American academy of political and social science (Philadelphia) July, 1940, v. 210: 89-97.
- Vitoshky, Blagovest. Preliminary to federating the world. Los Angeles, Calif., United world pub. co. (815 S. Hill St.) 1939. 44 p.
- Walch, John W. Complete handbook on an Anglo-American alliance. Topic, Resolved: that the United States should establish an alliance with Great Britain. Portland, Me., Platform news pub. co., c1938. 154 p.
Bibliography: p. 24-30.

Warburg, James P. Peace in our time? New York, London, Harper & brothers [c1940]

76 p.

"Peace machinery - League? Union?": p. 58-69.

Wells, Herbert G. The new world order; whether it is attainable, how it can be attained, and what sort of world a world at peace will have to be. London, Secker and Warburg, 1940. 190 p.

— Ten points for world peace; a "declaration of the rights of man" should be the foundation of any post-war world. Current history (New York) March, 1940, v. 51, no. 7: 16-18.

— World order. Fortnightly (London) Nov.-Dec. 1939, v. 146: 473-496; 585-614; Jan.-Feb., 1940; v. 147: 34-54; 187-210.

What kind of peace? [London] 1940. 84 p. [National peace council. Pamphlets, 1940, no. 3]

The lessons of the League experiment... the possibilities of federation, etc. by Sir Norman Angell and Mrs. Barbara Wootton. p. 65-79.

Whittlesey, Derwent S. Utopia for Europe, four-state subdivision based on natural environment. map. New republic (New York) Feb. 12, 1940, v. 102: 204-207.

Wilson, Duncan. Federation and world order, by Duncan & Elizabeth Wilson. London, Thomas Nelson [1939] 184 p.

"Examine[s] in detail how federalism has already worked out in the British Empire, the United States, and elsewhere - and from this deduces how it might be adopted on a world wide scale."

World order and the conditions of its reconstruction. League of nations. Monthly summary, Jan.-Feb. 1940, v. 20: 13-18.

Wurmb, Lothar von. The world federal state. World order (New York) Jan. 1939, v. 4: 386-390.

Young, Sir George. Federalism: a hook for leviathan. Contemporary review (London) May, 1940, v. 157: 513-524.

Zaleski, August. The dawn of a third system [for future order in Europe] Free Europe (London) Nov. 15, 1940, v. 3, no. 27, p. 6.